Mayor Beckman called the meeting to order at 5:00 p.m.

Keehn began the meeting with an overview of what the Planning Commission is currently working on with their review of the comprehensive plan. Keehn then worked the council through a goals/ objectives/ strategies/ outcomes scenario to identify several goals that will guide the Council in future decision making. The Council identified several goals relating to protecting and preserving Lake City's natural environment, maintaining the character of the community, encouraging diverse business opportunities, and encouraging forward thinking government of the City.

Meeting adjourned at 5:55 pm.

Joel T. Beckman, Mayor
